Produce Unprecedented Team Results

As a leader in today's marketplace, you're vulnerable to losing your key and best team members due to many choices in the current job market. And, it is well known that people leave people, they don't leave organizations.

In this course you will be given proven ways to enhance your leadership skills, garner unprecedented results from an aligned, cohesive team and lower the risk of people leaving the team.

Your intact team of 5 or more people will participate in a pre-test and a post-test regarding the team's alignment and the Leadership Impact Survey™. You'll gain benchmark data on your team's performance AS A TEAM and a better understanding of your own behavioral preferences, plus feedback about you as a manager to improve your metrics.
